

SARAH CROSS : ACSI ZIMBABWE CHAIR

I am a passionate advocate for Christian Education, seeing the effects of Biblical integration into every aspect of life as truly bringing abundant life, both in my own life, the life of my family, our church family and my girls schooling. Being the editor for SSALT, a Scripture Union children's Sunday School teaching material, a trainer in Paths to School Improvement, a pastor's wife, a mother of 4 children, and a nurse all give me practical ways to live out my faith and daily lean on God's Word for guidance, wisdom, strength and rebuke in order that I may grow and learn and live to glorify and worship God as my Saviour and King.
