

HANNAH MARKS

Hannah is a visiting lecturer at Gateway Training College, teaching several of their courses. She also lectures at Celebration College in the Bible School, where she is the Dean of Students. Her passion is to help believers understand why they believe what they believe through learning about the logical reasons for their faith in God, Jesus and the Bible. Although Hannah now mainly teaches adults, she loves the next generation and has spent much time teaching apologetics, worldviews and general principles from God's word to teens in schools, both private and government, as well as at youth groups. When she's not teaching Hannah enjoys spending time outside in nature, walking her dogs and baking.
