

JOHN BELL

I am a born and bred Zimbabwean, saved by Christ at the age of 14 and called to pastoral ministry in my late teens. I served as a policeman before studying Bible and Theology in the US. It was there I met and married my “MK” wife Miriam and we returned to Zimbabwe in 1984. From June 1984 to December 1996 I pastored Bindura Christian Fellowship, then from January 1997 to Feb 2017 pastored Central Baptist Church. From January 2018 I have been part of the pastoral team at Covenanters Christian Church in Harare. I am also involved in Harare Theological College and Theological College of Zimbabwe (Bulawayo). God has blessed us with 4 biological children, 2 foster children, and 6 grandchildren. I love teaching and preaching, gardening and squash and am committed to widening love for Christ and His glory as well as the practice and influence of expository preaching in Southern Africa.
