

DR TED BOYCE

Executive Principal, Pacific Group of Schools
OAM, BA, MEd (Syd), PhD (Alberta), FACE, FACEL

Dr Ted Boyce is the Principal of Pacific Hills Christian School and New Hope School. He is Executive Principal of Pacific Coast Christian School, Pacific Hope School, Pacific Valley Christian School, Valley Hope School and Pacific Brook Christian School.

With education qualifications from the University of Sydney, BA, MEd; and the University of Alberta, Canada, PhD; he has gone on to teach at a number of universities both in Australia and overseas. He was also involved with Regent College, Vancouver, as a Visiting Scholar and Professor, where he assisted in a review of the College as a Christian Education Institution.

Ted has a passion for Christian education and has travelled widely in promoting and teaching in Christian education on every continent and also in the islands of the Pacific Ocean. His emphasis is always on allowing God's truth from the Bible to be the informer of how we view all of life and it is his desire that Christian education should bring glory to God first and foremost, and through that bring rich blessing to those who are served by Christian education, and to those who are in Christian education.
