

SIMON SCOTT-ELLIOT

Simon is a confused Scotsman who has lived in Zimbabwe since 1996. Married to Michelle since 1999, they have three children: Amy 17, Chloe 15 and Callum 12. Simon has worked at Hillcrest College, Peterhouse Boys' School and is now the Deputy Head at Ruzawi School. He is a member of the Community Church in the Marondera area and absolutely loves being part of that Church. His hobbies include running, cycling, golf, hockey, cricket, birding and telling people what to do. He has found the ACSI Conference truly inspiring over the years and is honoured to be a part of it this year.
