

PHILIP THERON

Philip is married with three children, and has worked full-time as Assistant Director, ACSI Southern Africa, since March this year, after being at The King's School Vineyard for nine years. His passion is AUTHENTIC Christian education and bringing glory to the Father in everything we do as Christian schools. He believes we have an amazing opportunity to guide young people to a relationship with Christ through what we do, say, and live out every day. Philip is currently studying for his Masters in Educational Leadership through Morling College, Australia.

